*H*IGH above the filmy smoke of industry's turmoil rises a Tudor-Gothic structure of brick and stone. To a casual passerby this is just another of the city's high schools. But to those whose best years have happily begun and sadly ended within these walls, Hughes is a warm and revealing word. The classrooms, which at a glance are all alike, reveal upon a closer look something unseen by the outsider. This "something" cannot be seen, only felt. For it is the soul of the room which brings with it memories—memories of classmates, teachers, and the desk you sat in, of that time you spilled ink on the floor. The halls, too, remind you of the locker which was once yours. There's the corner where you met your friends fourth bell. It's a homecoming.

*T*HE first day of the school year we find ourselves within these walls as freshmen, happy to be here, as is evident by our shining eyes and smiles of satisfaction. Perhaps lost and tardy to class, we timidly approach two sophomores who magnanimously direct us to—well, anywhere but to our right class. Our next difficulty is remembering our new teachers' names. We've never had so many before. Although humorous to the rest of the class, it is embarrassing for us when we call Miss Smith, Miss Jones. Our English teacher takes us to the school library where we are introduced to its many functions. Gradually we fall into step with the ways of Hughes: to study, to be honorable, to respect our school, to be friendly. Our best years are happily begun.

*N*OW that we are juniors, we are looking to the future, expectant, hopeful. We plan our courses with more care and consideration. We burn the midnight oil, and our reports show Mother and Dad that we are earnest and serious people. With a secret smile we go on to our senior year, determined to do still better. Before the underclassmen we swell with pride and dignity of rank, and yet—how the years have fled! It was only yesterday that we ourselves entered these walls expectant yet afraid! With what divided souls we end this year—sad to leave but curious, wondering about the world we are to encounter. But now as we leave in our innermost hearts we will remember that within these walls our best years were happily begun and sadly ended.

Are Happily Begun And Sadly Ended

*H*UGHES, erect and proud, watches with patience and possibly amusement, the events that happen during a school year. It is these incidents which make high school an integral part of the "best years of our lives". The things which are important to us now will all blend together to form a memory of a happy past whenever the majestic towers of Hughes appear to us, and we review with pleasure the experiences that always accompany happy memories. Hughes shares many secrets with us as we pass these fleeting moments of our lives within her halls, just as she has shared the secrets of the other thousands of hearts who have imparted their joys and heartaches to her. Her walls have played host to the initials of many who wanted to be remembered. Now that the walls are repainted, these names are forever blotted out, but she remembers those who contributed much to her fame, graduated, and went on to greater tasks ahead in the world.

To a very darling girl,
Remembering the good times
we've had.

With love

Bunny Manburg - Omega

SINCE the world has become air-minded, it is not odd to soar above our city to get a better view of it. A beautiful sight from this position is the tower of Hughes rising above surrounding buildings, and distinguishing itself as a landmark. Inside and outside we find evidence of the fact that surrounding communities may be proud of Hughes. From the confused freshmen on the first day of their high school careers, to the proud seniors on the last day of theirs, Hughes is truly part of the best years of the lives of those who study there. For many, graduation is the end of formal education, while for others, it just a stepping-stone to a higher education. In either case, a milestone is passed; all go proudly on to greater heights, with fond memories of Hughes upon which to look back as they progress in learning and living in the world found outside the walls of high school. The foundations of today lead on to each and every good year to come.

THE BEST Years of Our Lives are now! In the words of Mark Twain, we may paraphrase the last of our high school days in his own immortal words, "Those were glorious days, the days at Hughes High. They will come back no more, life has swallowed them up, and youth will come no more. They were days when the tide of life was high, when the heart was full of the sparkling wine of romance. There have been no other days like them. "True, some of these days have already passed forever. We, who are graduating, are going on to a less carefree way of life, yet we all still have the essential ingredient of which he spoke—the joy of having youth!

Yes, Graduation Night itself will soon be woven into our fond memories of these best years. For these are our best years, literally. Our teachers are giving us a solid foundation for the future in sound knowledge and a broadened vision. Our everyday contacts with people have enabled us to make many valuable friendships which will be lasting and cherished always. For us the promise of the future is challenging and exciting. This is our beginning. If we cling fast to our memories and can still look forward to every new day with anticipation, we can mold each coming year into the very best year that life can give to us.

 faithfully aiding frantic, frustrated future citizens over the rough spots which seem unavoidably to appear even during the best years of one's life.

N DOUBTEDLY you have been told by your parents or by some person who thinks his experience justifies his prediction, that you are living in the best years of your life. Some of you question this statement because of your impatience to get out into the world and earn your way. It is your heritage to look ahead to the experiences in life that are but a fulfillment of what you have prepared yourself for while in school. Some of you have found that the best is not synonymous with having a so-called good time. The getting by with as little effort as possible is not an accomplishment that brings with it the feeling of contentment. This senior year may bring with it the joy never before experienced of having reached a definite milepost. In that respect it may be called the best year of your life. If, however, after a quarter of a century you look back and still claim it to be the best, your school has failed in its purpose to prepare you to live a full and worthwhile life which becomes better as the years go by.

My wish for you is that each succeeding year that is yours to live may be the best year of your life.

WHAT are the best years of your life? Probably no one knows precisely. They are of a certainty those years when your work is satisfying, your health is normal, your friendships are loyal and your faith is strong. May there be many such years in your life.

Arthur J. Havlovic

The boys of Hughes receive expert advice and guidance from Mr. Arthur Havlovic, our popular and smoothly efficient Mr. "Gus." Mr. "Gus," assistant principal of Hughes High, is the inspiring and able leader of our twenty-eight-year-old Hughes Club, our very active honor organization for boys of outstanding school leadership and citizenship. He and Mr. Clyde Hall each morning admit boys who've been absent from school. Mr. Ralph Loudenschlager, who is new to Hughes this year, serves as a full-time counselor to our male population; Mr. J. Ferris Mathis acts as adviser to senior boys.

THE "BEST years of your life?" Yes, they have been,—thus far: but if you continue to regard them so, you will always be looking backwards. If Hughes High School has done anything for you, it should have helped you develop your potentialities so that each succeeding year, with its high adventure in living, will be "the best year of your life."

Edna Leroy

Mrs. LeRoy is serving this year as Dean of Girls at Hughes. She helpfully sets our feminine group on the trail of that best year of life we all long to achieve in 1947. Miss Clara Fink and Miss Aria P. Schawe help us, as advisers to senior girls, to decide our problems for the years to follow our graduation in June. They also head the Honor League to which every senior girl at Hughes belongs. Mrs. LeRoy serves as sponsor and level-headed guide to our Student Council, now in its second year at Hughes. Miss Gladys H. Busch encourages and aids the freshman girl in her first year of life in a large cosmopolitan high school difficult year.

We salute our faculty which has remained stable and alert in these troublous times. They are a mature, well-trained group of teachers who have kept abreast of the times. It is to them that we owe much of the credit for the ever present Hughes spirit of co-operation and loyalty so long a tradition in our soon-to-be century old school. We owe them much for their loyalty and devotion to learning and scholarship.

While we cannot mention individually all the worthwhile classroom and outside achievements of each faculty member, we do appreciate them. We especially wish to extend good wishes to all who have accomplished new successes we may emulate ourselves one day. We hope we are able to take the perspiration that goes along with inspiration, sticking it out until we reach our goal, as they have done. We congratulate Mrs. George Howell of our language department, who was signally honored by being asked to France last summer as a guest of the French Republic. There she happily, but sadly, too, renewed many of her friendships made in pre-war days when she annually studied at the Sorbonne. We are proud also of the successful showing of lovely water colors at Closson's early this spring by Miss Gladys Dee Ervin, head of our Art Department. They were the outcome of a sojourn in southern California in the summer months of 1946.

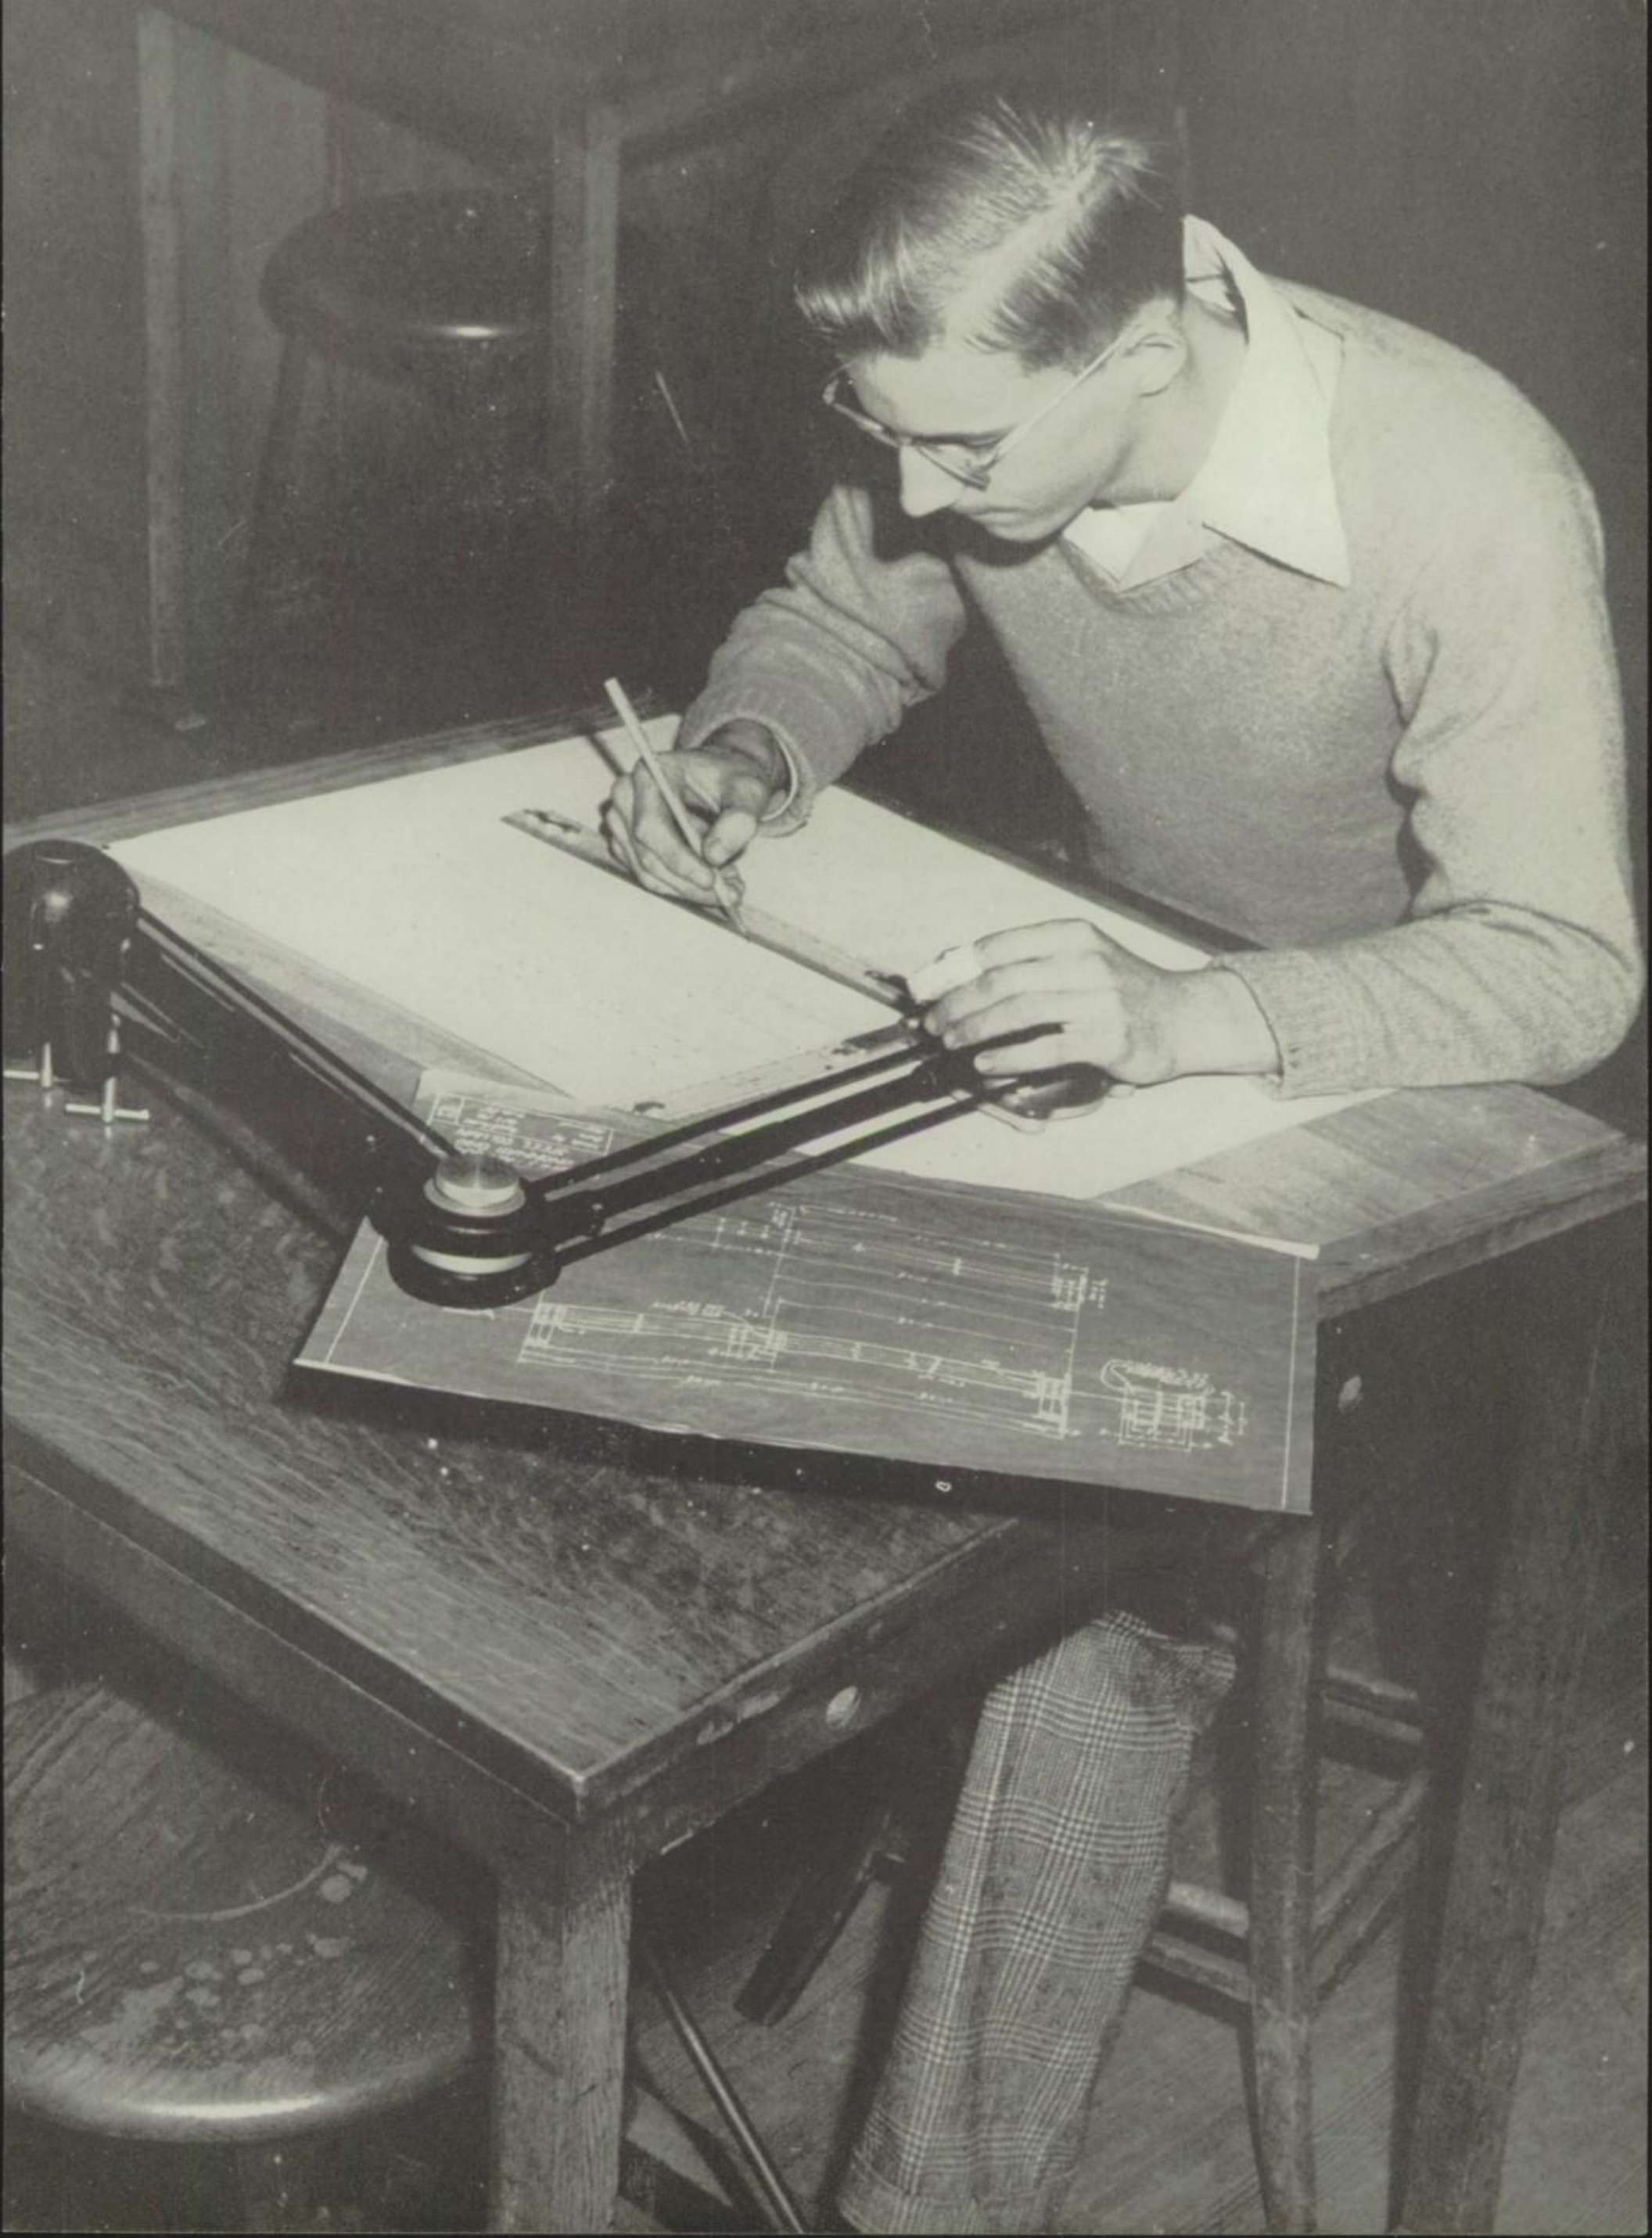

he school life, during a student's best years, holds varying interests for him as he goes from class to class learning facts he can store away for use in the years yet to come.

Co-ordination Of The Hand And Mind

THE THIRD year Home Ec class volunteered to carry out a Red Cross request for six wool capes and finished them to the last detail. The girls who made the capes are from left to right: Sophie Karapondo, Marilyn Beineke, Helen Rogers, Natalie Royce, Elsie Bigler, and Mary J. Stutzman.

AT THE right a stand-in is fitted for Alice's costume for "Alice in Wonderland" as Janet Wahle plans the Red Queen's robe. A seamstress places finishing touches on the White Queen's robe. The Stage Production Club under the guidance of Miss Frances Adomeit costumed this recent success.

CAPABLE stage crew members clown here as Bob Schneidhorst dusts the face of Ralph Denhart. Charlie Schneider stands by. Under the direction of Mrs. Mildred Japp, new to Hughes this year, they have done a bang-up job of staging all of the productions and auditorium sessions.

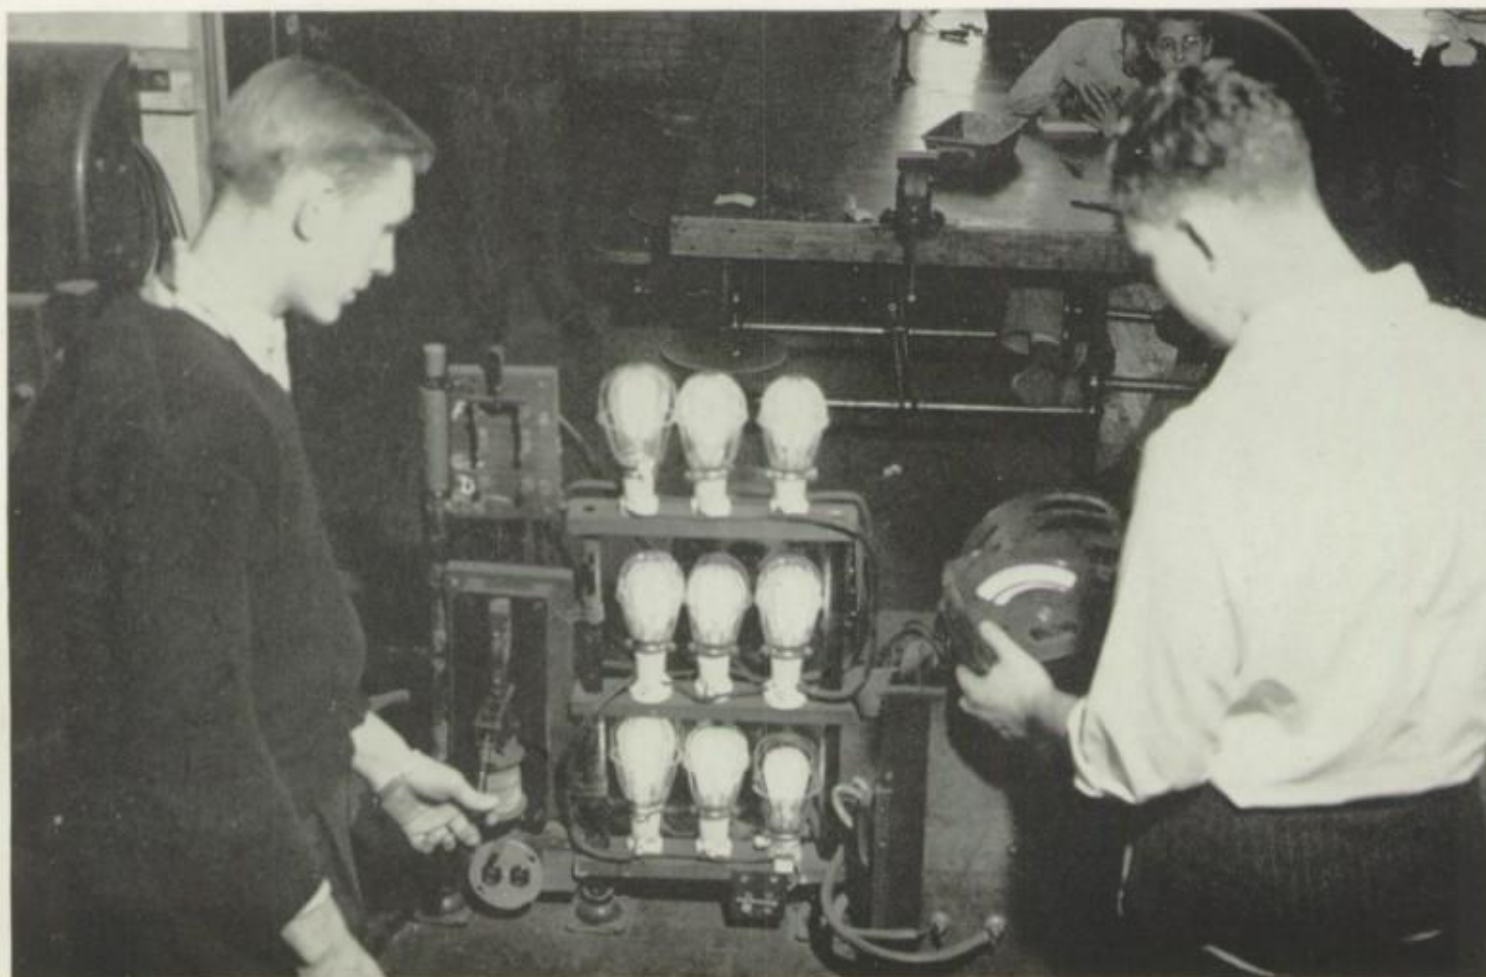

We Cut Costumes As Crew Cuts Capers

PRINTING PROBLEMS ABSORB ATTENTION AND LEAD TO SKILL AND EXACTNESS.

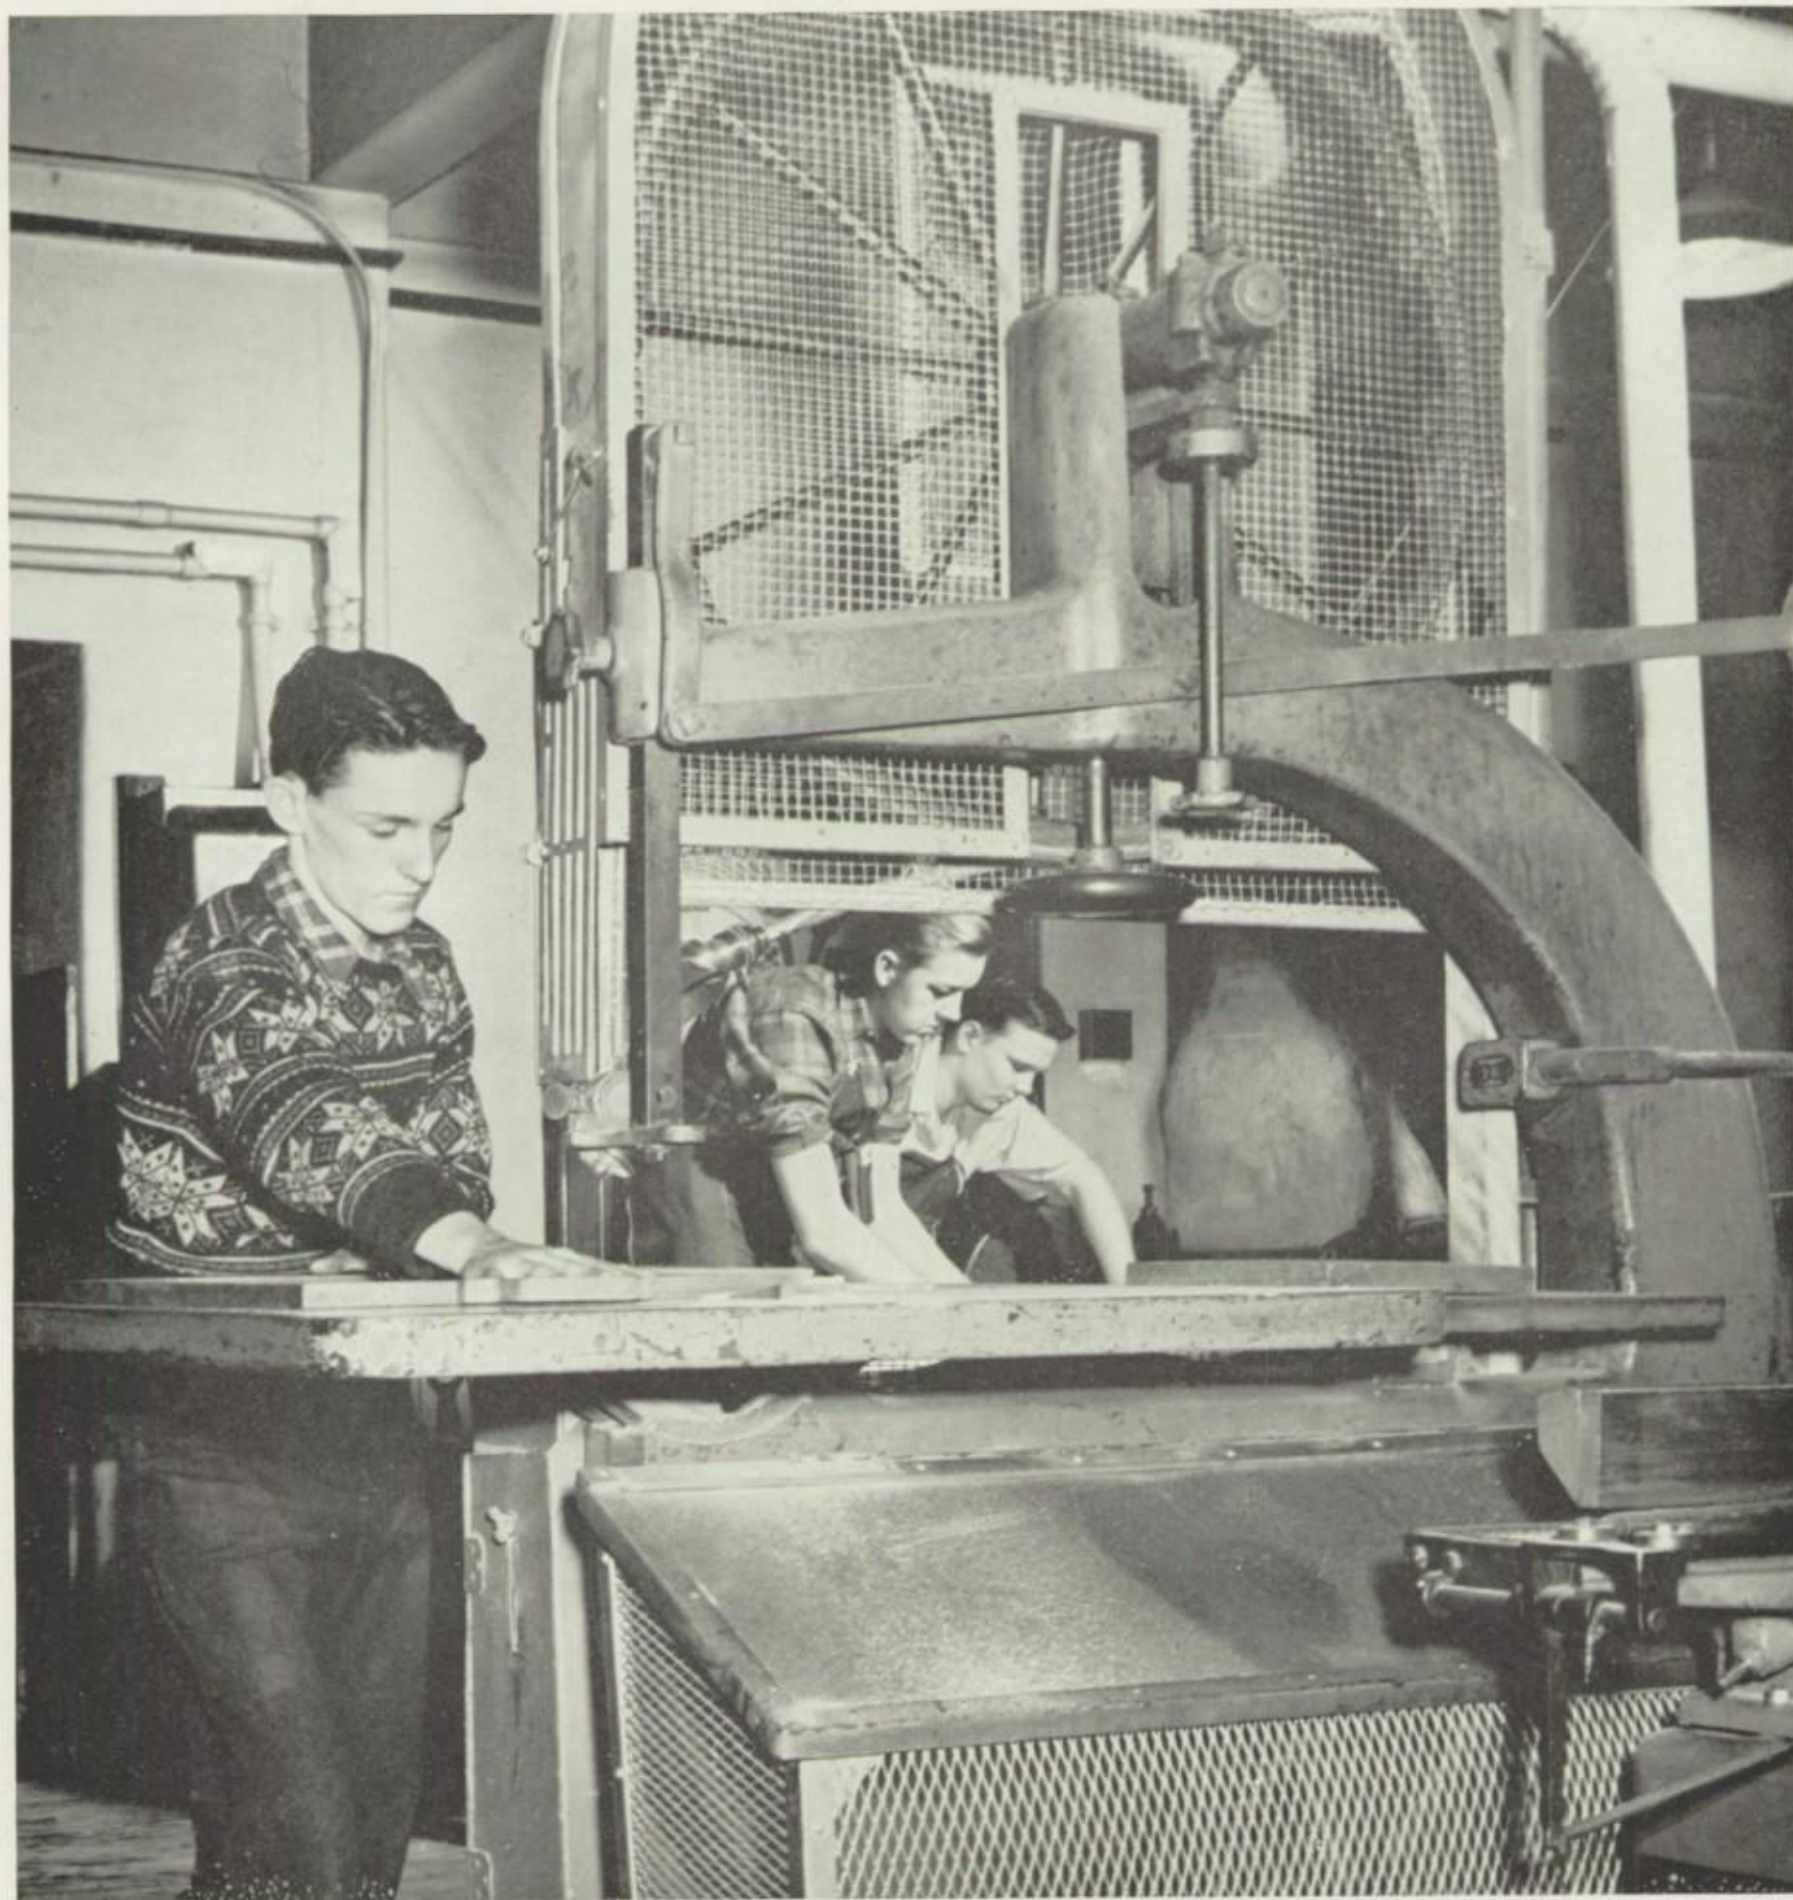

ONE OF the busiest places at Hughes is the Print Shop, one of the five Industrial Arts Shops in the school. Most printed school forms, tickets, programs, and material for other school activities are products of our print shop. At the right Elmer Lacy is observed by Dick Quade, while Don McKee operates the press in the foreground. Next year photography, book-binding, and silk screen stencil work will be taught here.

ELECTRICITY classes at Hughes offer valuable experience to our boys, both for their vocational application and for their home use. Classes are under direction of Mr. Creighton of the Hughes faculty. In the picture to the left, Don Meister is holding a closed circuit breaker on a lamp bank. At his right, John Brunner measures the voltage of a direct current generator, as both learn more about electricity, our versatile servant.

Electricity Is A Shocking Subject

Hands And Eyes Are Precision Tools

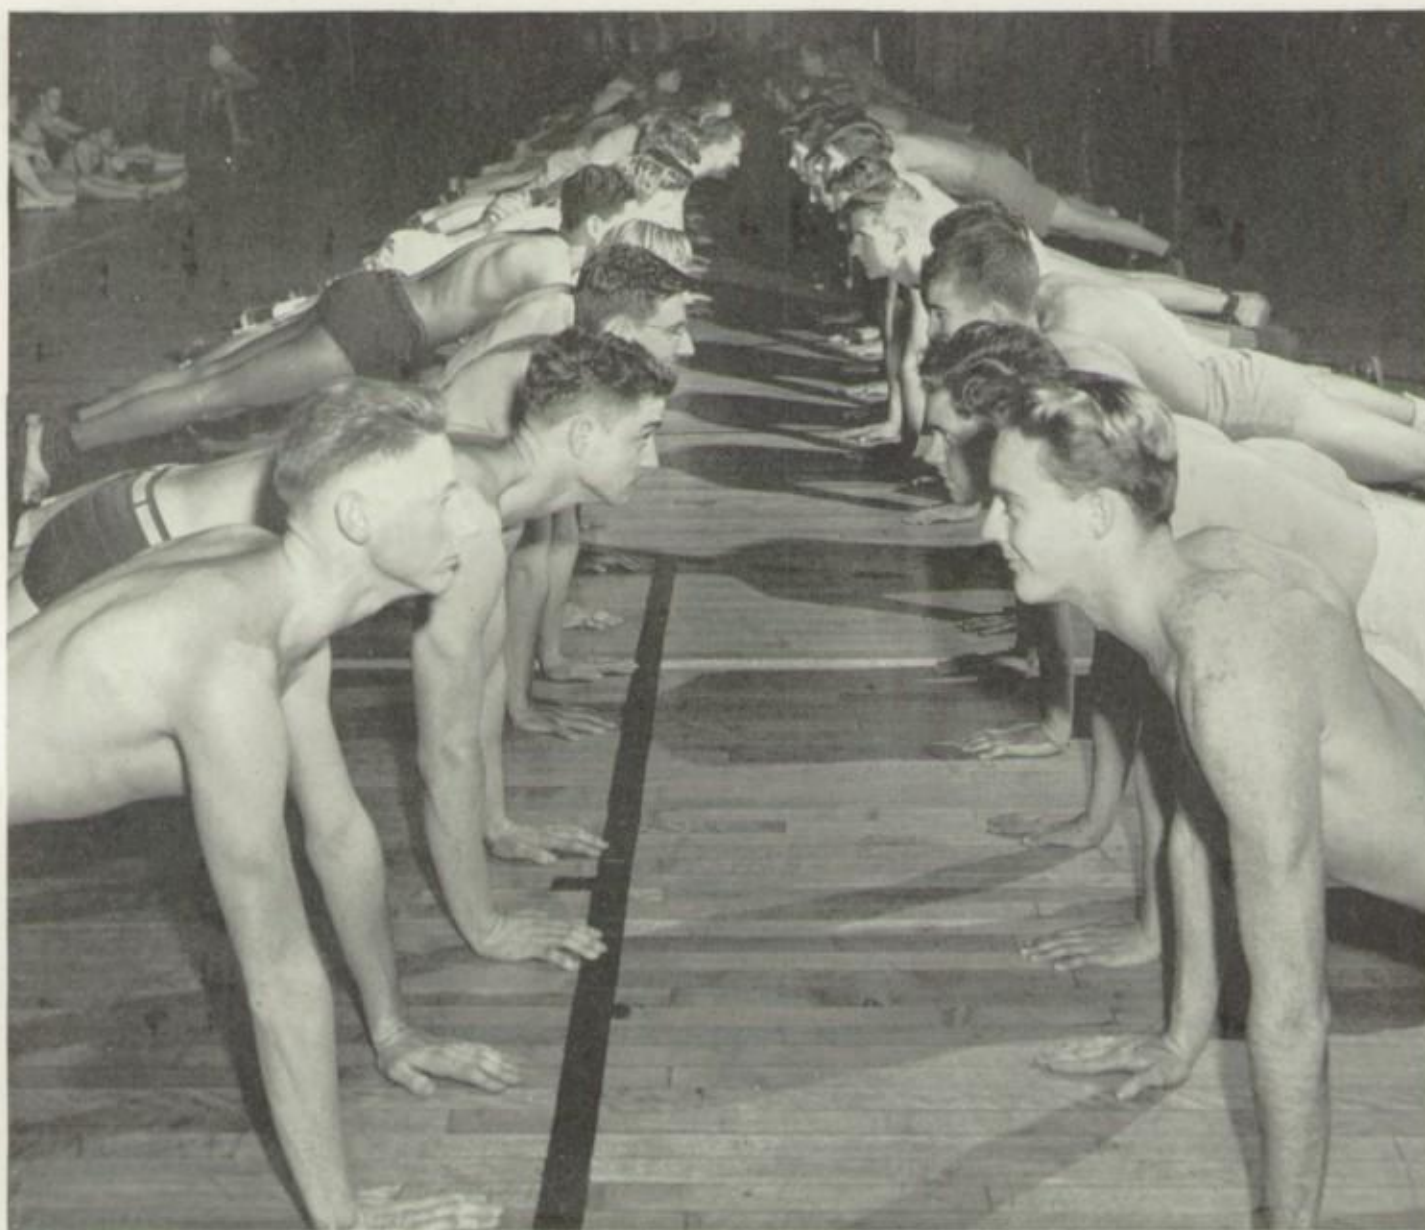

WOODWORKING STUDENTS GAIN EXPERIENCES IN TOOLS AND TECHNIQUES

ROBERT DIRR, Walter LaFary and Alvin Schenk are cutting out parts of a Japanese arch for the school operetta. Besides the many projects for their homes, their school, and their community, they made tables and lamps for the Red Cross, for Service Hospitals.

Woodworking classes get experience in applied geometry, tool and machine techniques, shop mathematics, and blue print reading that will form a practical basis for many university engineering courses or that create interest in making articles as a hobby.

LITHE BODIES AND GLOWING CHEEKS RESULT FROM CO-ED CALISTHENICS

ABOVE and to the left students learn to conserve the health of their peak years through thorough exercises designed to tone and build physical health. "Phys Ed," one of the most popular of classes in the modern high school, increases pupil efficiency.

AT THE right pupils of Miss Harris, prepare plants for transplanting in the famous Hughes greenhouse. From this carefully operated haven of beauty come the colorful, lovely blooms that decorate our window sills in midwinter and grace our frequent flower sales.

DRAMATIC SUCCESS OF THE SEASON

A HEADLINING a year of entertaining and outstanding stage productions was "Alice in Wonderland." The play was presented under the direction of Miss Helen L. Stapleford by the Hughes Playhouse to record audiences. Leads were the following: Alice, Judy Hartman; Lewis Carroll, Charles Case; Red Queen, Geraldine Lipsky; White Queen, Jacqueline Slaughter; White Rabbit, Edwin Spievack; Humpty Dumpty, Jonathan Reichert; Gryphon, Ray Herrin; Mock Turtle, Jacob Stein; Mad Hatter, Jack Barsman; March Hare, Allan Woodbutn; Frog Footman, Charles Freeman; King of Hearts, Jack Rouda; Queen of Hearts, Marilyn Schroeder; Knave of Hearts, Peter Frommer; Tweedledum, Walter Bortz; Tweedledee, William Heckman; Five of Spades, James Lewis; Two of Spades, Elmer Lacy; Seven of Spades, George Fullerton; Duchess, Eileen Albers; Cheshire Cat, Lois Mattfield; and Caterpillar, Jean Hengel. All were freshmen and sophomores.

PLASTERERS AND PAINTERS BEDECK OLD HUGHES

AT LAST! Hughes is being painted at last. It seems unbelievable, but it's true. The newly established Student Council helped greatly to bring about this improvement of conditions. Everyone worked hard to secure petitions signed by parents and friends. It was a difficult task, but to our pleasure a successful one, for in the spring of 1946 the painters and their equipment appeared on the front steps of Hughes. Washing and painting went on all through the long summer vacation and the school year of 1946-47. It is with proud appreciation that we can now enjoy clean unblemished walls that have done so much to brighten our last and best year at Hughes.

In Memoriam

THE flag has been lowered for Dick, our beloved head custodian at Hughes for the past thirty-five years. Richard Hartigan was to have retired this year at the age of seventy, an ambition he had looked forward to fulfilling for the past few years. Dick was ever on duty, summer and winter alike. He was the friend of both teacher and pupil. No request was ever too much for him to carry out. His true interest in the welfare of others was ever evident. His loyalty to Hughes was manifest in every act. He had many sorrows, but never complained. His, was a life that deserved a few years of quiet rest before the end of the way; although we may be selfishly glad to have had him with us so long. May each of us honor him by catching a little of his love for Hughes and for the many things he helped to make traditional here.

STUDENT Council, new to Hughes in 1945-46, has supplied a Lost and Found Service, provided for the sale of Savings Bonds and Stamps, furnished ink for study halls, and has aided the cause of repainting our building. A basic understanding between student and teacher is its purpose.

Under the guidance of Mrs. LeRoy, the officers have seen to it that splendid support was given to the March of Dimes and has awarded memberships to the Youth Council. The smooth operation and the diverting amusements provided by the Council have more than proved its worth.

CHRISTIAN Youth in Action has grown rapidly in its two years of existence. The need for this club has led to its quick success under the guidance of Miss McSurely.

KINGS, queens, and knights remind the majority of the feudal times. To the Chess Club, however, it means, as shown below, keen competition and enjoyable times alike.

THE words Scholastic, Social, and Service constitute the three S's of the Hughes Club. Under the heading of Service, the members have furnished entertainment for the County Home for the Aged and special services for Hughes. Service at Hughes takes the form of gifts. Now a new walk and shrubbery are planned.

Scholastically, the members must be good citizens with a good study record. On the social side, many are the lads and lassies who have enjoyed one of the many pleasant Hughes Club dances. Members, too, look forward to Friday night meetings with business, speakers, or movies. Being a Hughes Club member is pleasant.

PEP RALLIES BREED REAL ROOTERS.

COOPERATION between the officers and adviser, Mr. A. J. Havlovic, has had the effect of producing splendid pep sessions and active cheer and pep leaders. Spirit building through Pow Wows resulted too. We are grateful to the Huzite leaders of songs, yells.

POW WOWS GENERATE HEAP BIG SPIRIT.

THE first requirement for membership in the Hughes Hi-Y is membership in the Hughes Club. The purpose of the organization is to "create, maintain, and extend, throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character." Among the many activities of the club the boys once again this year won the senior basketball championship. Gordon Arnold, Joe Havlovic, Don Stoll, Jerry Wright, and M. Games were, as usual in the starting lineup, with all other members acting as subs. Among the social activities of the club have been several Hi-Y dances at Hughes, one after a Pow Wow and one recently at Mt. Airy Lodge, and other affairs planned by the club.

The 1946-47 officers of the Hi-Y have led the members through a successful season, such as its constituency has become accustomed to expect. The club officers are President Jerry Wright, Vice President Merrill Games, Secretary Gordon Arnold, and Treasurer Don Stoll. Hi-Y at Hughes differs sharply from other organizations in that its roster is limited, thus preventing duplication of the purposes of Hughes Club itself. There are fifteen seniors and twelve juniors in Hi-Y. The juniors are elected at the half year and additional seniors in September. Mr. Paul Bowers, Hughes Football Coach is sponsor, adviser, and guide for each active Hi-Y member at Hughes High School.

HUGHES CLUB OFFICERS: R. Reis, G. Arnold, Mr. Havlovic, Mr. Games, J. Havlovic, J. Curren.

HI-Y OFFICERS: D. Stoll, G. Arnold, M. Games, J. Wright.

HONOR LEAGUE OFFICERS

CLOWNS, QUIPS GREET LITTLE SISTERS

THE Honor League, one of the largest organizations at Hughes, one including every senior girl annually welcomes the freshmen girls and makes them feel at home by adopting them as little sisters. The motto of this very worthy service organization is in 1916-17:

"To do the thing I know is true
And should not be ashamed to do
To help to make some others see
The thing that so appeals to me."

Honor League services include guidance by Freshies' Aides when school opens; information service by girls who answer inquiries daily for visitors to Hughes; the collection of food offerings for the poor; and a program for the County Home in April, 1947. Officers of the Honor League are, last row: Executive Committee members, L. Shelton, J. Creighton, D. Funke and D. Leaman. First Row: Secy. J. Horner, Pres. V. Merz, Vice Pres. V. Wagner, and Treas. M. Adams.

THE German Club has a new acting sponsor, Mrs. Bennett. She has very successfully taken over and handled the duties of Miss Schenk, who is now visiting Holland. The purpose of the club is to unite the members' common interest in language. The meetings are well-planned and vary. We see slides of Germany, sing German songs, and play games. Last fall we had a pleasant picnic and weiner roast in Burnet Woods.

BRILLIANT performances marked the numerous appearances of the Hughes A Cappella Choir. First, came a delightful program for the Southwestern Ohio Teachers' Convention at the Masonic Temple in October. Performances that followed were enthusiastically received at school assemblies and at church services throughout the city. Our reverent Thanksgiving program and the Christmas Concert were topped by a week of Yuletide caroling. Faculty members attending the U.C. Christmas reunion were pleasantly surprised to hear lovely carols by our Choir. Shut-ins, too, were thrilled to hear the old familiar Christmas carols so beautifully sung by well-trained voices. Pleasure reigned when the choristers climaxed their work with a holiday celebration at school.

WITH the advent of the new year, Mr. John Molnar took up his baton patiently and untiringly to lead principals, chorus, and orchestra to a triumphant production of the Gilbert and Sullivan operetta, THE MIKADO. An appreciative audience greeted each of its three performances in our school auditorium on the nights of March 19, 20, and 21. The May Festival at Withrow presented high school choirs from all parts of Cincinnati, and once more the Hughes A Cappella Choir exhibited its unusual ability to create lovely and impressive music. As a conclusion to a very successful year of musical activities, the Choir sang for the 1946 graduates' reunion and for the June graduation of 1947 seniors, paying tribute to these seniors and to the long-remembered climax to their best years.

MR. JOHN W. MOLNAR, CHOIR DIRECTOR

The Mikado Highlights Our

UNDERSTUDY HYNES COACHES MANKI-POO

LITTLE MAIDS FROM SCHOOL POSE PRETTILY.

*I*N THE Mikado, a Gilbert and Sullivan comic opera, the story revolves about the troubles of Nanki-Poo, Prince of Japan, who spends a year incognito to escape the unwelcome attentions of Katisha, an elderly lady. Nanki-Poo has fallen in love with Yum-Yum who is already betrothed to Ko-Ko. Ko-Ko avoids a death sentence by becoming Lord High Executioner, thus destroying Nanki-Poo's chance to marry Yum-Yum. Finding the despondent Nanki-Poo trying to commit suicide, Ko-Ko, in order to find a victim to execute, so that he may keep his position, persuades Nanki-Poo to be executed. The Prince consents, with the provision that he may marry Yum-Yum and dwell with her until the execution. The wedding is called off when it is learned that the wife of an executed man must be buried alive with him. As the Mikado approaches the city Ko-Ko, in desperation, forges the death certificate of Nanki-Poo, who marries Yum, Yum, and promises to marry Katisha.

The leading roles were taken by Edna Durham and Melvin Eberlein as Yum-Yum and Nanki-Poo, the young lovers. Mary Ann Kamuf and John Vandegriff supplied comedy as Katisha, an old woman, and Ko-Ko, the Lord High Executioner. Doug Sonderman and Mel Rethmeier portrayed Pooh-Bah and Pish-Tish, two noble lords, and Nina Jo Marucci and Carla Deifel, Pitti-Sing and Peep-Bo, sisters of Yum-Yum. The Mikado was performed by John Christos. Understudies were E. Christos, J. Hynes, M. E. Flinn, V. Kampf, W. Leimberger, and P. Smith.

Memories Of A Good Year

WITHOUT the help of loyal workers who support stage productions the success of a project would be greatly decreased. The art classes, under the able direction of Mrs. Japp and Miss Adomeit mended costumes and made various articles which were needed to complete the production. The Senior Girls' Glee Club became make-up artists, and directed by Miss Schawe many senior girls donned costumes to usher the "First Nighters" into their places. The stage crew showed their artistic ability in lighting affects under the capable supervision of Charles Schneider. The sound equipment was tended by Gus Cassini, while Ralph Denhart and Bob Schneithorst worked as set directors. Miss Koppenhoefer, assisted by Janet Hynes, had charge of publicity. Mrs. Follinger and Mr. Havlovic were aided by Milton Phillips, Carol Ross, and Jean Baumer in the promotion of ticket reservations. Through this co-operation, the "Mikado" was one of the best Hughes productions.

CHRISTOS, THE MIKADO, PERFECTS HIS ROLE.

EXECUTIONER VANDEGRIFF IS A SYMPATHETIC PORTRAYAL.

Providing the accompaniment for the "Mikado" was the Hughes Orchestra under the direction of Mr. John W. Molnar assisted by Mr. Rea W. Brown and Mr. Wilber Howard. The pupils spent many hours of their own leisure time practicing and rehearsing for this great event. Prompters, Evelyn Weidmann, Miriam Burbank, and Ruth Sonntag were kept busy and on the alert every minute of the performance. Paula Spiers and Nancy Crain, John Collins and Bill Sonntag, the call girls and boys, were responsible for getting the performers on stage.

TO APPLAUSE, loud and long, Mr. Rea Brown walks away with top honors for the splendid work of his two accomplished Junior Girls' Glee Clubs. These girls, trained both in singing and stage performance, have shown their abilities in the musical field when appearing in the Christmas and Spring concerts. Their officers: Vice Pres. Lois Sox, Barbara Minshall; Treas. Nona Paul, Lois Adams; Sec. Edith Pike and Joan Willeford. Holding the gavels of these musical clubs are Nancy Crain, Sr. Girls' Glee; Robert Kuhlenberg, Sr. Boys' Glee; Phyllis Goins, Shirley Zentgraf, Jr. Girls' Glee; and LaVerne Reinhard, Jr. Choir. We say "thanks" to this Hughes music department for the part played by its members in creating these, "the best years of our lives."

LAST, but by no means least, our Junior Choirs rank high on our list of brilliant musical entertainment. Members of the two choirs, like those of the Junior Girls' Glee Clubs, are in the majority freshmen and sophomores who only this year are beginning their high-school musical careers. In spite of this, they have exhibited in concert appearances their vocal qualities.

Similar to the other musical organizations, the choirs assemble two hours each week to vocalize and harmonize under the baton of our popular instructor, Mr. J. Molnar. With the A Cappella Choir set as their goal we are sure these choristers will continue to strive for perfection, and to magnify their triumphs. Officers: Bill Sonntag; Vice Pres. Charlene Lucas, and Barry Bishop.

Grace Accompanies Dance Club Work

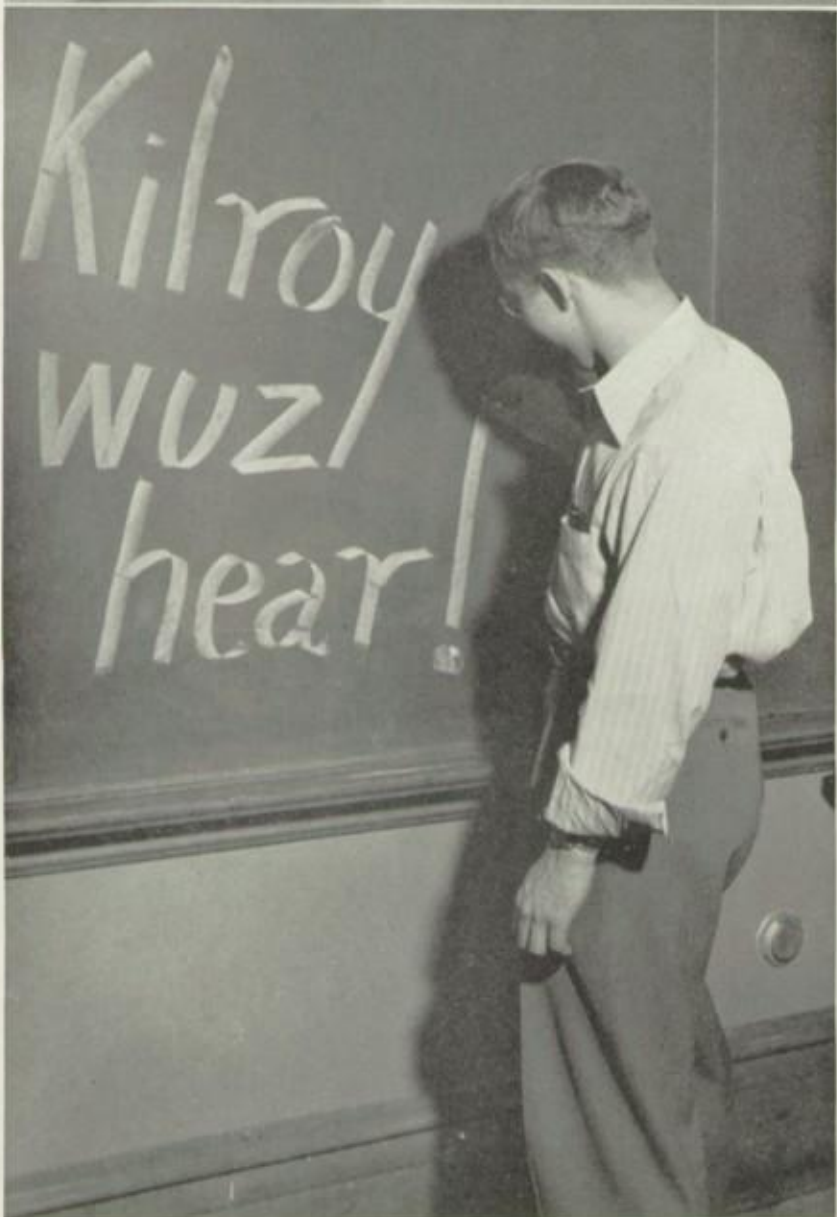

THE MODERN Dancing Club provides an excellent opportunity for girls to gain their much desired grace and poise. At practice sessions the girls exercise leg muscles and at the same time practice balance. For several weeks dances are taught to the girls which express this graceful art. Many girls are surprised and marvel at each improvement. The climax of the dancing season is near the end. All the clubs in the city get together for a symposium. Each group puts on the dances practiced at the meetings, and in this way the members can get an idea of what other clubs in the city are doing. The things learned in dance club are very valuable and will not be easily forgotten. Dancing has given many girls self-confidence through an awkward period.

*H*OW YOU'LL explain this page to Junior, come 1977, on some cold winter night when his plane is grounded, we'll leave strictly up to you—warning you that it will be tough, bub. Just now, it all seems so current and so logical. There sits Ralph Dunn at the upper right in the only really post-war car in style to arrive on the market, while the rest of us drool, in this year of car shortages. Some solve the car shortage, as in the lower right by driving a jeep to school. Now we come to the really tough ones, and you can take it from here. At the upper left we have "Open the Door, Richard"; at the lower left, "Kilroy" finally arrived in Cincinnati from our far-flung battle fronts. Yes, that's our story of TYPICALLY 1947, and it all does seem so typical now, as we leave the halls of Hughes to face—death, taxes, and earning a living.

WE THROG BACK TO SCHOOL ON SEPTEMBER 9, 1946.

TINGE of autumn on this sunny September morning finds Huzites returning to school, eager to greet friends of years past. In spite of all the jokes about school days we are thrilled to be at Hughes.

Yes, Hughes offers many treasured memories and experiences for all those who wish to cherish them. Every year many a beautiful friendship is formed under the protecting shadow of the Winged Victory.

Our Best Year's Outstanding Events

JOE HAVLOVIC and Jerry Wright are busy supplying teachers, as seen in the picture at the right, with the necessary books for us to begin another of "The Best Years of Our Lives" at Hughes. On the first of our eagerly anticipated holidays, October 25, the group at the left below were busy dancing a square dance at the Southwestern Ohio Teachers' Convention. These seniors sacrificed part of that day to do western square dances at the Physical Education program of Miss Elsa Kramer.

SENIORS show originality and a sporting spirit annually on the "Bowtie and Pigtail Day" held for their amusement in early October. Pigtailed varied from countless small pigtailed, tied with gay ribbons to a balloon affair worn to represent rabbit ears. Girls who forgot were labeled with signs. The boys' ties ranged from large pink and plaid bows to dollar bills and a log that lighted. Even dignified administrators appeared in vivid neckwear. Left: Miss Schawe, Mr. Kizer and Mr. Havolic pose.

REFRESHMENTS were in demand at the "Big and Little Sisters' Party" of 1947 when the above picture was snapped from the balcony of the girls' gym. Freshmen and seniors alike wore the circus motif hats at this gala occasion. Another feature of early October was the fashion show modeled by the Home Economics department students, as in the upper right. Paula Spiers, Sweetheart of the Hughes Band, looks queenly as Darrell Crowe, drum major, presents her with a bouquet of American Beauty roses, our school flower. Officers of G.A.A. preside at the annual initiation ceremony.

*W*ITH the football season in the past and Christmas a pleasant memory, smiles that had appeared for the holidays soon vanished. As the latter part of January approached, anxiety over exams spread to many students. The Junior Play house lightened several days by presenting "Alice in Wonderland." Exams proved to be not too bad. Then followed a period of loyally attending and enjoying our basketball games, even though we eventually lost out in the district try-outs. Finally frosty February brought deep snows.

PEP CLUB brightens snowy evenings with a "Cupid's Fling" on February 14. Bob Endres and Claire Biederman reign as king and queen, with Joan Gamble, John Collins, and Joyce Adams attendants.

DULL wintry days finally are over, and the few days before Easter holidays are brightened by the sale of lovely, flowering plants, sell-outs as usual, from the Hughes greenhouse botany projects.

MANY moons later, after a balmy spring, come those hot June exam days, late in the month. Finally every question answered, annuals all autographed, pupils wave good-bye to their many classmates.

*H*OW QUICKLY have the high school days spent in our gothic castle, Hughes High, passed by! Many leave school to have the experience of their first fulltime office or store positions. Others, determined to continue their education, move across the street to our neighboring halls of learning at the University of Cincinnati. As fall arrives they try to acclimate themselves to the rarefied atmosphere of college life. Seen leaning against Mack, one of the famous McMicken lions, are to be seen several of the class of 1947 of Hughes. Ralph Denhart chats with Virginia Smith, as Jack Coomer, Carol Stoffregen, Carol Keller, and Fred Otten compare notes on those first days.

One seldom realizes, glancing across the street to U. C. just how crowded it is with former Hughes' students. The loyalties developed and standards achieved, reap rewards.

Every year Hughes graduates attend out-of-town colleges, and this year is no exception. Representatives from Hughes will continue to spread her fame in colleges all over the U. S., and bring glory to the Clifton Palace. In the picture at the right are John Vandegriff and Laurie Lamy, leaving for Ohio Wesleyan University and Michigan University, respectively. John and Laurie will, no doubt, come back to visit Hughes on their class reunion day next winter and be greeted by friends from this year's freshman, sophomore, and junior classes. John and Laurie, like all other graduates, will treasure happy memories of an Easter Vacation in Washington, junior and senior proms, and graduation exercises that will keep the Hughes spirit with them when they are away next year at college.

*J*UNE 20 arrives with the usual scurrying to sign annuals! And as pupils look over this pictured record of this year they know it was a year well spent.

As years pass, old grads of '47 will emit many a chuckle as they renew old memories via pictures in this annual, "Our Best Years," a record of school days.

After 20 years at 1006 Sycamore Street we have moved "just around the corner" to a location at the junction of Reading Road and Central Parkway. Our new address was strategically important to the Army over a century ago because historic military marches began here. It is strategically advantageous to us now—it is accessible to all down-town sections and motor arterials branch out to all points of the compass. This accessibility will be mutually helpful to you and to us.

IT IS to the business staff of the Gargoyle that the students owe a debt. It is through their efforts in securing advertising that the students pay only five cents for what is really a nine-cent paper. Income from theatre tickets are also a source of finance. Special vertebrae of the Gargoyle's backbone are the typists, without whom little could be done. Norma Martini and Virginia Kinner, two of the speed queens, were not present when the picture of the business staff was taken. This staff gains valuable practical experience in news finance.

Technicalities of layout are being pursued by these behind-the-scene operators. Layout is one of the most difficult cogs in the wheel of newspaper work. Before a page is made up, assignments must be given, headlines concocted, and articles juggled until they fit as do the parts of a puzzle. The hardest part of this behind-the-scene work is the giving and receiving of the news assignments. When assignments have been given, editors plan pages, then comes the rush. The struggle to meet the deadline creates an authentic atmosphere of "ink."

Here is pictured the nucleus of those who have a journalism sideline. Columns vary from year to year, as do the interests of writers.

GAILY dressed in formals and Sunday best, representatives of the Gargoyle joined with Hughes Annual Staff members to attend the dinner dance which climaxed the convention of the Journalism Association of Ohio Schools. Other high spots of the statewide get-together held in Columbus on November 8 and 9 were meetings and lectures at Ohio State University, attendance at the Hughes-West High game, visits to the office of the Lantern, Ohio State Journal, and to climax a full weekend, attendance at the Ohio-Pitt game. The delegates decided convention attending was profitable fun.

The editorial policy is discussed by the junior members of the editorial staff under the watchful eyes of several seniors. The Gargoyle staff not only strives to provide a student publication, but also works toward a better campus, a stadium Hughes can call her own, greater school spirit, and wide student participation in activities. News cubs at their first staff session are amazed to discover the many details which keep the page and business editors busy far into the night if they are to accomplish the aims of this broad editorial policy successfully.

WITH great enthusiasm and expectations, members of the '47 Annual Staff assembled last fall in 104 and began their task of preserving for all proud Huzites the memories of everyday life at Hughes. With the help and guidance of Miss Mary Beirne, a teacher new this year to Hughes, and with the encouragement and experienced counsel of Miss Helen Tangeman, former annual adviser, the editors, Ruth Figg and Stuart Kravetz, and staff planned and created an annual which they thought would appeal to the Hughes High School student. In selecting a theme for the yearbook it was agreed that the idea must be one expressing both the importance of these school days and the pleasures received from them. With this in mind, their choice proved a happy one for surely these are "The Best Years of Our Lives" thus far!

RETURNING to the staff for his third and best year in spite of critical shortage of film, Ralph Denhart, chief photographer, was joined by Carol Montgomery, a two year art student member and this year's art editor, and Jean Meyer who labored over the typewriter through two annual publications. Found constantly conferring with Mr. Clyde Hall, financial adviser, over necessary "money matters" went Janet Wahle and Charles Dolman, two proficient business managers. Taking paper cutter, rulers, and paste in hand, these seniors toiled the sixth bell each day as well as many hours after school to meet the printing deadline, until the annual finally took shape. The '47 Annual now is the ninety-sixth page in the history book of Hughes, and the staff concludes that it was a good year!

Juniors Await Their Very Best Year

MEMBERS of the junior class, now more than in previous years, are beginning to understand their responsibilities in the machinery of a busy world.

Their futures are taking shape as the best years of their lives are nearing an end, and they are slowly assuming the tasks that should accompany maturity.

*Q*UAMOUS for food, our Hughes lunchroom attracts boys laden with trays. They love especially the time-honored high-school-boy combinations of mashed potatoes, hamburger, pie, and ice cream—and milk, of course. Appetizing salads, sandwiches, and banana cream pie are unfailing attractions for our girls at lunch time.

Freshmen

TOM Strong and Walter Steidle compare report cards with Al Janzen, a typical freshmen. These boys find time to stop at their lockers before and after school to exchange stories on every subject imaginable. Off to class, then, to meet other friends or out to the car stop and then homeward bound. Ah! how busy each and every day is for all freshmen. They are busy living active lives.

Each is trying out and making good on reserve teams, playing in the school band for the first time. These are days full of the business of growth and learning. Yes, the freshman year is exciting and truly One of the Best Years of Our Lives.

"AND what are your names?" asks Honor League President Virginia Merz of her two little sisters, Edith Bradshaw and Marlene Nolte. Every year the Honor League has a party for the "Little Sisters" from the Freshman class. Each Senior is given one, two, even three Freshmen for her own little sisters. The Senior girls help them to adjust themselves to high school life and to get acquainted with Hughes. Some "Big Sisters" take their little sisters out to a movie or have some good times in other ways. Valuable friendships and lasting bonds are made in this manner between the youngest and oldest girls at Hughes. Thus '47 Seniors carry on a tradition of honor and service well. They are adding to the long record of friendships fostered by the Honor League since its inception many years ago.

DICK REIS DRIVES HARD AS WITHROW PLAYERS SWARM IN TO STOP THE PLAY.

Reds Tie P. H. S. L. Championship

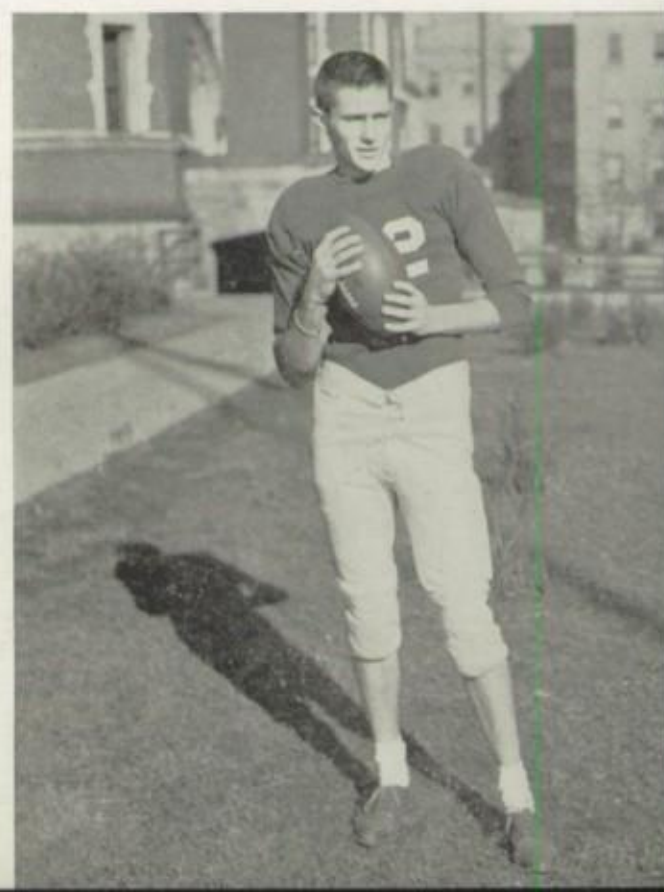

THE HUGHES team alternately roared and sputtered its way through one of the most in and out, up and down, hectic seasons in their long history. The Reds, who started the season with eight lettermen as a nucleus, finished with the somewhat unimpressive record of only two wins, six losses, and one tie; however those two victories were sufficient to give the Clifton Knights a third of the P.H.S.L. championship. The Reds' forward wall, led by hard charging all-city, all-state tackle George Endres and little but powerful Fred Mechler, was small but strong defensively. The backfield was paced by shifty George Graff playing his third year as a varsity back, and a trio of hard running halfbacks, Chuck Goering, Jerry Wright, and Murray Guttman; and fullback, Heimkreiter. The punting chores were handled by Ralph Dunn. Highlights of the season were the Withrow and Elder games in which the Big Reds played like true champions. The schedule featured an encounter with Columbus West. In this game the Reds displayed their strongest offense.

GEORGE GRAFF, QUARTERBACK

JERRY WRIGHT, HALFBACK

Hughes 0 West Hi 0

ON THE basis of previous play the Maroons were a heavy favorite for this encounter with the Big Reds; but the Hughes eleven never gave them a chance to show it. The Reds dominated the entire game with West Hi never gaining possession of the ball enough to use its vaunted running attack. The Red's strong offense sputtered out inside the twenty yard line, as no less than six times fumbles and penalties cost the Reds dearly. The Knights' final scoring drive was stopped on the Maroon three-yard stripe when time ran out.

Hughes 6 Purcell 31

THE CITY Champion Purcell Cavaliers won a fairly easy game over the Big Reds in an inter-league encounter at Xavier University Stadium. The Hughes forward wall stopped, to some extent, Purcell's ground attack; but the Cavaliers, undaunted, took to a deadly air attack and capitalized heavily on the inability of the Big Reds' pass defense to cope with aerials. The Clifton Knights racked up a consolation tally on a line plunge from the five yard stripe.

COACH BOWERS

Hughes 13 Central 0

THE 1946 version of the Big Reds' football machine started off the season with an impressive 13-0 win over Central Vocational. The Reds' first marker came late in the first half when Murray Guttman skirted end from the four-yard line. Graff's conversion was good. Hughes scored again shortly after the second half opened. The Reds took the kickoff and drove 55 yards, only to be held by the Hornets who had to punt. Two plays later Graff tallied on a wide end run good for 18 yards and the score. Graff's conversion was wide.

Hughes 0 Hamilton 38

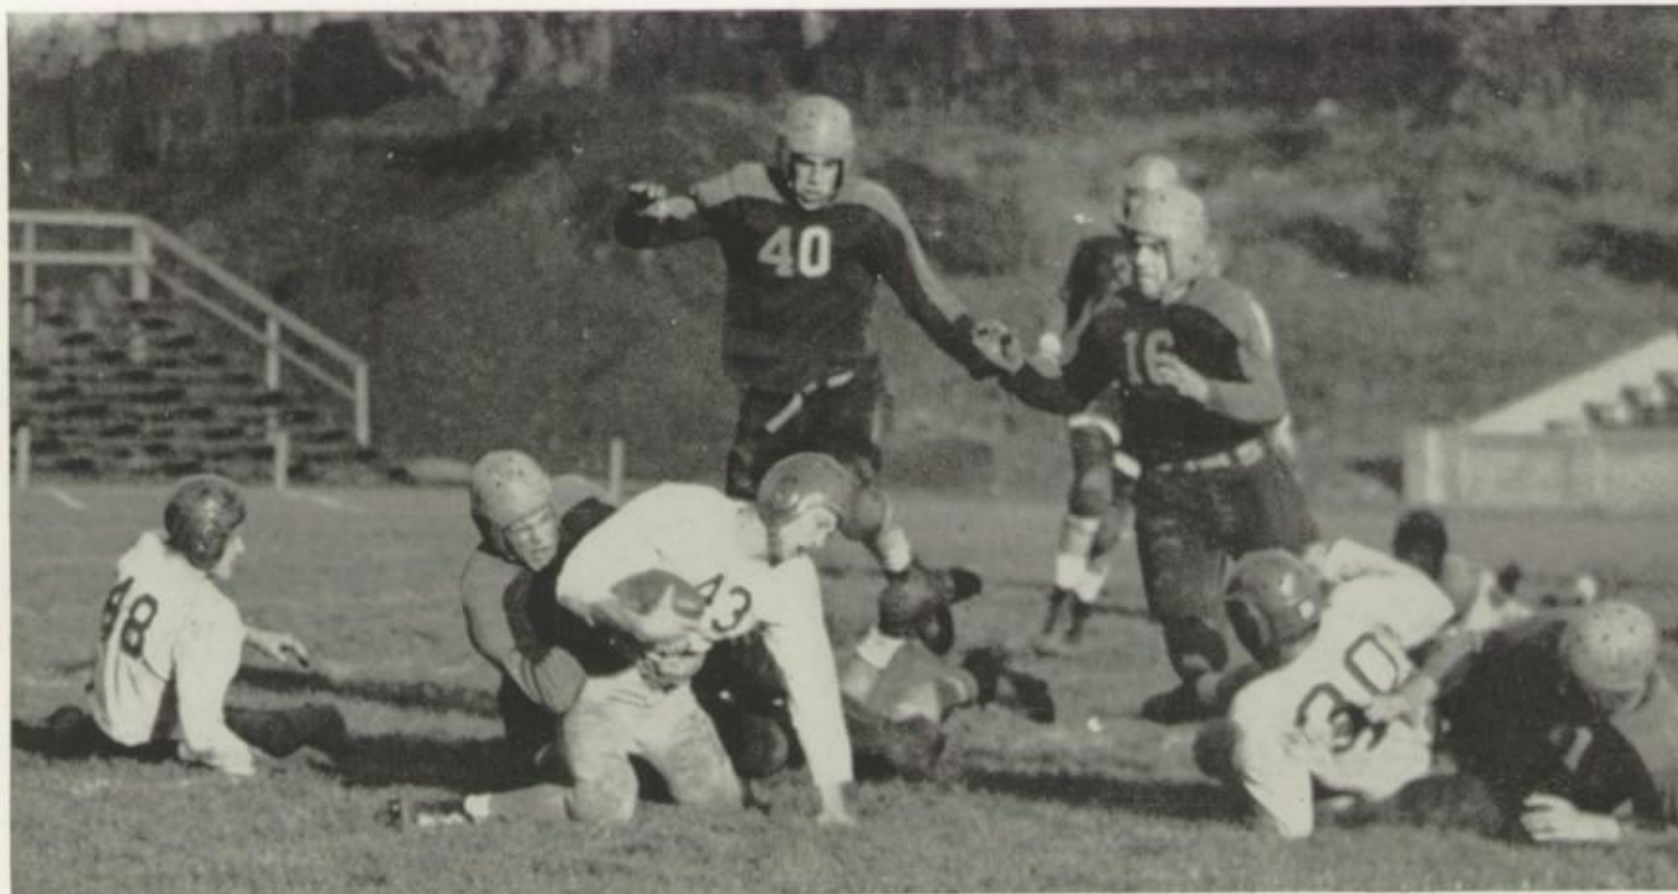

A POWERFUL Hamilton eleven led by Joe Nuxhall hung one on the Big Reds in their annual inter-city encounter. The Big Blue had the Reds singing the blues as they roared unchecked, scoring in every quarter. The Hughes forward wall, was outweighed, out-charged, and generally out-played with the exception of George Endres who was the Red's mainstay. The Big Red secondary just didn't have an adequate defense against Nuxhall's bullet passes, while the offense never had the opportunity to get started.

Hughes 18 Columbus West 26

COLUMBUS started the scoring in the first quarter, but the Big Reds came right back to knot the count. Chuck Goering ran 75 yards after which Graff pitched a pass to Reis for the score. The Reds' next marker came in the second period, after Columbus had forged ahead. Dunn snagged a pass for the touchdown. Columbus drew first blood in the second half, but the Reds' retaliated on a trick pass play; Graff to Dunn to Borman. The Reds' hope for a win were dashed as Columbus back Nesdale ran the kick-off for a touchdown.

Hughes 13 Xavier 21

FERD MECHLER, GUARD

FRED HEIMKREITER, FULLBACK

After a scoreless first quarter, the Xavier Bombers marked up the first tally of the game on a fourth down pass. The Reds scored after center Kenny Robinson ran an interception to the Xavier 25 yard line. Three plays later Heimkreiter cracked over. Xavier came right back with a touchdown as the half ended. The Bombers racked up a tally in the second half; scoring after a sustained drive. However, the highlight of the game was Ken Robinson's second interception and 82-yard run for the Reds final score.

EAGLE TACKLERS FIND DIFFICULTY IN DOWNING HARD-RUNNING GEORGE GRAFF

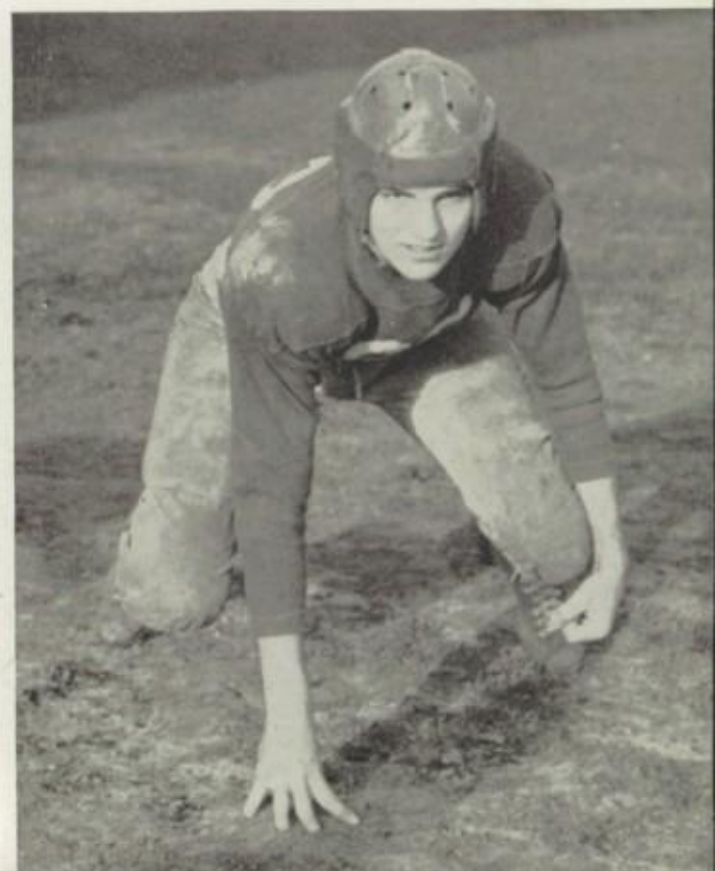

Hughes 0 Walnut Hills 6

PLAYING one of the poorest games of the season, the Big Reds blew the one they should have won. The Eagles lone, but winning marker, the first they scored against the Reds in many years, came in the first period on the old screen pass and the Big Reds never recovered: A muddy field hampered the Reds running attack to some extent but in general, the Reds played a listless game, showing little aggressive spirit. Toward the end of the game the Reds drove deep into Eagle territory, only to have the Eagles hold for downs.

Hughes 6 Elder 13

Playing one of their best games of the season, the Big Reds were out-scored but not out-fought by the Elder Panthers. Elder scored the first time the ball came into their possession, and when they added a tally before the half ended, things looked black for Hughes. But the Reds returned strong the second half and played inspired ball in holding the Panthers scoreless. Penalties and fumbles held the Reds' until the third period when a Graff-to-Goering pass netted Clifton Knights' only touchdown.

Bulwark of the Big Reds' forward wall was tackle George Endres. A hard charging, and hard-tackling player, George could be depended upon to stop any play which came in his direction. George was chosen All-city and All-state and was selected to take part in the Ohio All-star game.

For next year's team, Coach Bowers will have a number of returning lettermen. On the line he will have Bob Endres, a big bruising tackle; Wes Terrell who has alternated between center and end; and two other ends, Goedde and Klotter. Backfield positions will be filled by Gittinger, Dunn, Nedelman, and Guttman.

GOERING DISPLAYS SOME FANCY RUNNING IN WITHROW GAME AS DICK REIS AIDS WITH A BLOCK

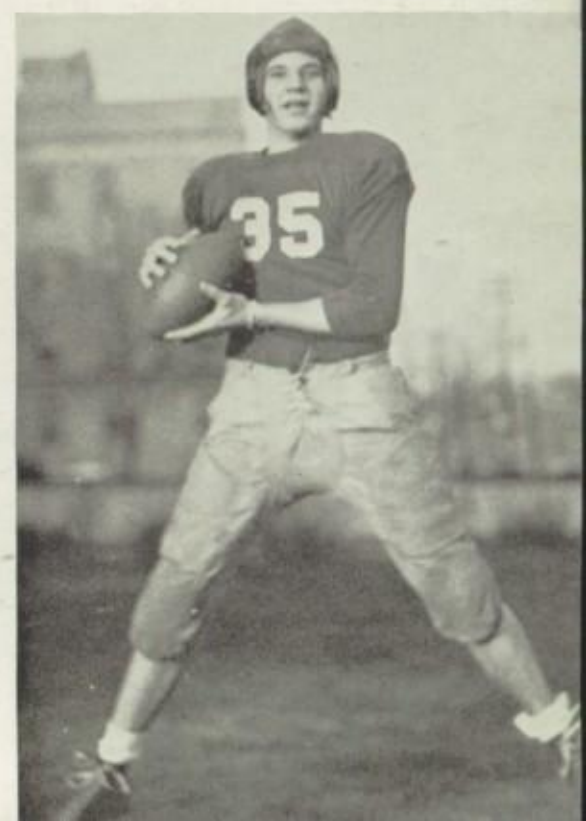

Bowers' Boys Batter Baffled Tigers

ONE OF Southwestern Ohio's oldest football rivalries was a thrilling and fitting climax to a somewhat unusual season. The Clifton Knights pushed the hapless Withrow Tigers all over the gridiron and although they only tallied two touchdowns, the Big Reds outplayed Withrow by an extremely wide margin. The Tigers, after receiving the opening kickoff were unsuccessful in their attempt to advance the ball and were forced to punt. Hughes led by the running of halfback, Jerry Wright, drove all the way down to the Tiger's five yard stripe as the quarter ended. Three line smashes had failed, when George Graff lobbed a pass to Dick Reis in the end zone. The kick for extra point was wide. The Reds chalked up their second tally in the third period. When Charles Goering intercepted a pass on his own forty and scooted the remainder of the distance unmolested. The conversion failed. The rest of the game was completely dominated by the Reds, but numerous penalties cut off further scoring. Near the end of the game, the Tigers resorted to desperation passes which brought them to mid-field for the first time.

IN HIS first year as Basketball Coach of the Clifton Knights, Mr. Robert Reuss welded a small but hard fighting group into the finest defensive unit in the city. The Reds' small stature did not prove to be too much of a disadvantage to the team. Employing a slow, deliberate game which emphasized possession of the ball rather than shooting, as the Reds did not always control the backboard, the hoopsters finished third in league standings with a record of six won and four lost. Of the four losses, two were to Walnut Hills' P.H.S.L. Champion Eagles; while the third one was to second place Withrow. The fourth league loss was to the Woodward Bulldogs in what was undoubtedly the low mark for the season. The Reds were conquered in a very low scoring contest 19-17. This defeat was later avenged by the Reds in a smashing 40-20 victory. The Withrow loss was also accounted for late in the season with a 27-26 win. The Reds rolled up four other league victories at the expense of Central Vocational and Western Hills. The second West Hi game was a hard fought hectic affair which ended in a near riot as the Reds came streaking from behind to down the Maroons 22-21. The final game with Central added a few more gray hairs to Mr. Reuss' head as the Reds downed the Hornets 32-30. In other contests the Reds' play was somewhat erratic. They beat Asheville and Covington; lost to Hamilton and Purcell; but beat Roger Bacon in an early season game.

The Spartans were the District champions. However the year's brightest event was a startling 30-16 upset of Elder's G.C.L. champion Panthers. The Elder team which played without the services of its coach was completely helpless before the Clinton Knights' excellent defense; while the Reds' offense was very potent.

Returning for the Redmen next year will be Lettermen Ralph Westerkamp, Bob Gittinger, Will McDaniels; and Carl Wiggerhaus. Center, Chuck MacDonald, a mid season transfer from Roger Bacon, will also be on hand. Wiggerhaus and MacDonald, sophomores; others juniors.

The Little Reds of Hughes experienced one of their worst seasons in years. The squad proved victor in only one game. That lone victory was a 17-14 win over the Woodward Bulldogs. Midseason ineligibility of key players cost the Little Reds several sorely missed wins in their future games.

The Freshie team completed a fairly successful season, finishing tie for third in league standings. In the play-offs the squad finished third. The pace setters for the Baby Reds, who were coached by Mr. Bowers, were Boyd Kohn and Al Janszen, who together made many of the Baby Reds' points when needed.

Through the gym season most of the scoring was done by Ferd Mechler, Andy Breiner, George Endres, and Walt Marble. Mechler was high-point man for the city, gaining two firsts in every regular meet. He specialized in both the long and the side horse.

COACH RICHERT

Although up against stiff competition, Breiner always managed to earn a first or second place in every meet. In the all-around meet he finished sixth from top in the city. Walt Marble also distinguished himself by proving to be a threat to the rope climb record.

Following true to form, the Big Red Gym team captured the 11th consecutive championship for Hughes. As the totals for the year were tabulated, Hughes had accounted for almost twice as many points as the closest contender, Western Hills. After easily copping the P.H.S.L. crown, the squad went on to win top honors in Central Turners' meet and then scored a walk-away victory in the Y.M.C.A. encounter. However when the all-around meet was held the Richertmen met their Waterloo placing their highest man, Walt Marble, in fifth place, while Nicholas Patootchy of Western Hills came up with first place.

In the regular season the reserve gym team was not too successful, finishing second to Walnut Hills. But in a post-season meet, the Redlets returned to wreak vengeance on the hapless Eaglets by performing like perfection itself and thus capturing the first place spot.

Handling the fancy diving chores for the Reds were Bill Bates and Tiny Jack Groban. Swimming the difficult 100-yard freestyle was Chuck Rosenthal, while Bob Wille and Ralph Dunn were entered in the breaststroke and the backstroke events in the meets.

AFTER an absence of several years, the P.H.S.L. Swimming Crown rests on the heads of the Hughes Mermen. The title was decided in the final meet. In the first city meet the Reds placed close second behind the Walnut Hills' splashers. The second city meet saw the Western Hills' swimmers win in a smashing upset victory; with the Clifton Knights third. However the Reds turned the tables in the third city meet gaining just enough points to edge Walnut Hills and take the crown. The Reds' scant margin of victory was one-half point. In the District Meet the Reds were fourth, following in the wake of Elder, Xavier, and Walnut Hills; but the 150-yard senior medley relay team of Bob Robertson, Conrad Seyfried, and Ed Elhoff took third honors in statewide competition. SINCE track season and press deadline arrive simultaneously, to give a record of the 1947 results is an impossibility. But viewing the first practice sessions, a very bright future seems to be in store for Coach Paul Richert's cinder burners. The team will be centered around the returning lettermen and will be especially strong in the field and hurdle events, for which there is a more than ample number of boys.

AS THE annual goes to press, baseball has just begun and no games have been played as yet. At the first practice sessions, the Big Reds look like they should have a successful year ahead; and if they show as well under actual fire as they do at practice, Hughes may well end up as king of the P.H.S.L. Coach Reuss, in coaching a Hughes baseball team for the first time, will build the team around a nucleus of the returning lettermen including Ralph Westerkamp, Ed Tessel, Fred Heimkreiter, Ralph Beard, Bob Gittinger, George Graff, Ray Staber, and Tom Jervis. Coach Reuss will be well supplied both on the mound where he has some promising newcomers to aid his three veterans, and in the outfield. The first game against St. Xavier will help Coach Reuss in picking a starting line-up and it will test the team's strength. The squad's most effective spot will be the keystone combination of basemen Graff and Bob Gittinger.

RALPH BEARD AND RALPH WESTERKAMP WILL BEAR MUCH OF THE PITCHING BURDEN.

Reds' Diamond Stars Shine In Games

Netmen Aptly Wield Deadly Racquets

THE BIG RED netmen of 1946 finished second in league standings. The Walnut Hills Eagles, who for some time have had a monopoly on the crown, again copped the title. The squad was paced by three lettermen, all single players. The three were seniors Bob Boeh, and Ed Wagner, and a junior, Chuck Goering, who was one of the few local players to give Trabert, singles champion, a good game. In the first doubles, senior Frank Mayer and brother Bill, a junior, made a team. Don Papner and Bob Campbell played second doubles.

CHARLES GOERING

THE 1946 season as a whole was pretty successful. The Reds were tripped up by Walnut Hills, St. Xavier, and Bellvue Kentucky; but proved quite effective against other competition. The ever-suffering reserves met defeat at the hands of West-Hi in their only match of the season. The 1947 annual unfortunately goes to press too soon to include a write-up of this year's tennis matches. When Coach Alan Kindschy announced the beginning of tennis, more than forty were on hand in answer to the call.

BOB CAMPBELL

DON PAPNER

RETURNEES from the '46 varsity squad, Goering, Mayer, Campbell, and possibly Papner are conceded top spots. The rest of the vacancies will probably be filled by last year's reserve squad. The first two weeks of practice were hampered by inclement weather. This made it difficult for Mr. Kindschy to get an idea of the ability of those he has not already seen in action on the clay courts.

Arrows Fly Straight To The Target

ARCHERY

LAST ROW: J. Kienker, E. Perkins, J. Thielmeyer, M. Kaiser, S. Moor-meier, J. Thielmeyer, J. Schroeder, J. Durban, J. Reid, D. Bonomini, D. Hume, B. Binder. SECOND ROW: V. Ellison, N. Brady, B. Roberts, S. Karapondo, M. Buck, W. Osterbrock, J. Albers, J. Dangel, J. Blettner, M. Ferguson. FIRST ROW: L. Busch, J. Judd, M. Gabbard, V. Hale, J. Gilmer, J. Taint, J. Reisner, M. Nolte.

THE INITIAL Wednesday afternoon sport is archery. All the Dianas, Robin Hoods, and William Tells flock to the girls' gym to indulge in aiming a few arrows at the target. The girls are divided into two groups, beginners and intermediates. The beginners are given instructions by the more experienced archers and Miss Jeannette Nurre, the sponsor.

After weeks of practice, some of the girls can actually hit the canvas backdrop behind the target. But seriously, many girls improve their technique and gain skill. This sport teaches good sportsmanship and co-operation. But the season must come to an end as the archers surrender the gym to modern dancers in December and anticipate enjoying other sports.

Athletes Tumble Their Way To Glory

TUMBLING

STANDING: M. Tuttle, N. Brady, J. Fredricks, M. Siehl. ON HEADS: M. Kaiser, J. Thielmeyer. PYRAMID, FIRST ROW: J. Taint, J. Blettner, M. Schroeder, J. Thielmeyer, P. Roberts. SECOND ROW: J. Parks, M. Kaucher, J. Theiler, J. Burt. THIRD ROW: J. Stone, J. Stone, F. Line-man.

HHEAD stands, back bends, cartwheels and pyramids are all "old stuff" to the group of active tumblers. Each tumbler must be willing to bruise and batter herself with no audible complaint, just for the sake of being a contortionist. This sport meets on Wednesday under the direction of Miss Violet Balastra who can think of some very rare stunts to attempt. There is, indeed, no doubt of what tumbling offers. Stiff joints and muscles are first on the list; nevertheless good exercise runs a close second.

'Hockettes' Have A Pleasing Season

WINNING HOCKEY TEAM

STANDING: J. Stone, V. Hale, L. Specter, M. Schroeder, S. Moor-meier, L. Bailey, J. Thielmeyer, J. Theiler, B. Breiner. KNEELING: D. Bonomini.

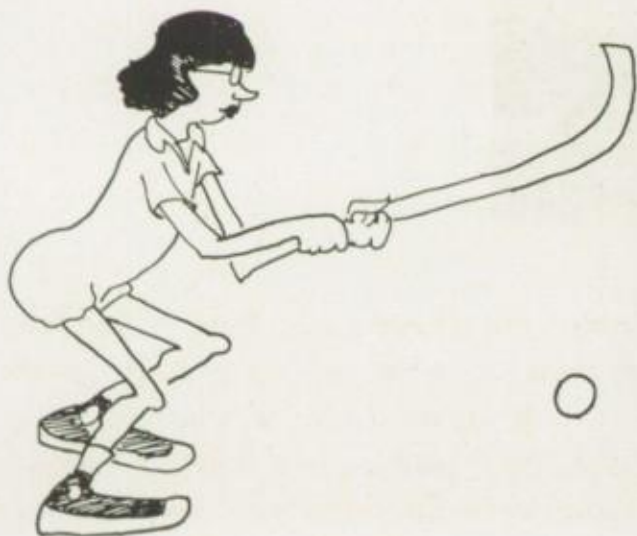

BRUISED shins, aching muscles and general fatigue can result from only one thing—a hockey game. Every Tuesday and Thursday the Hockettes trot down to Coy Field dragging their hockey sticks and shin guards behind. A few techniques are explained and demonstrated by the more experienced players and

Jenny Chosen Favorite G. A. A. Girl

JANET THIELMEYER

Ever ready to give a word of advice or a helping hand to anyone with big problems are the Physical Education instructors. Standing, Miss Jeannette Nurre, Miss Elsa Kramer, seated Miss Violet Balastra and Miss Maud Suter. All four of the teachers are interested in G.A.A. and try to stimulate the same interest in each of their classes.

GAA has added something new. It's Jenny!

As the saying goes, "Necessity is the mother of invention." So it was of necessity, almost, that Jenny was invented. As you know, there can be only one, possibly two Honor Girls and they are always seniors. This year we had so many outstanding underclassmen that something just had to be done about it. And so we have Jenny! The idea came from the posters that Ruth Hemmert made last year. The posters asked "Who is Jenny?" and "Where is Jenny?" They were used to advertise G.A.A. social activities. There were nominations and then the election. Jenny is the best all-around G.A.A. girl who participates in nearly everything and cooperates as well. Janet Thielmeyer was the choice of the members. Congratulations Janet! Your G.A.A. spirit will be long praised.

HONOR GIRLS

- 1941—Marjorie Hecker
- 1942—Stephanie Brezowski
- 1943—None
- 1944—Hilda Hartig
- 1945—Elaine Fieler
- 1946—Thelma Williams
Ruth Hemmert
- 1947—To be announced.

RUTH HEMMERT

The G.A.A. awards are based on a point system. For the various sports a girl may receive 50 or 75 points, depending upon the sport, plus an extra 10 points for making the Honor Team. When a girl has earned 400 points, she receives an emblem, for 1000 a pin, and a letter for 1400 points. The last and most coveted award is the Honor Ring. This is awarded to the most outstanding senior of G.A.A. Last year Ruth Hemmert and Thelma Williams were the Honor girls. Ruth is now attending the College of Liberal Arts at the University of Cincinnati. Thelma, now Mrs. Noel Hill, is living on a farm in Kentucky. We regret that we were not able to obtain her picture in time for publication.

RIDING CLUB

V. Kennard, V. Sloane, J. Shor, M. Lakonen, M. Miller, J. Miller, A. Van Wagener, J. Burt, R. Dixon, J. Jacobson.

THE RIDING Club is now three years old. On Fridays the girls and President Joan Shor met at Clearview Riding Stables, where they were given instruction on various techniques of riding. The beginners gained experience in spite of stiff joints and meals eaten off the mantle. The season went extremely well. All the girls were proud of the fact that they continued their riding all through the winter in all kinds of weather. Eventually much progress and improvement were made by some; others acquired bruises, but had lots of fun.

High Kickers Share The Spotlight

Kickball, the very first sport of the year, is the warm-up, get-acquainted sport. Most freshmen know how to play Kickball and they come out in great numbers. The good time encourages them to go out for other sports. All the upper-classmen have the advantage of their experience, but the freshmen make up in number for what they lack in experience.

PING pong, an individual sport has many enthusiastic followers. In the picture V. Hale, M. Schroeder, J. Thielmeyer and D. Bonomini play a swift game while J. Theilmeyer, V. Cummins, S. Roberts, J. Blettner, J. Hennel, J. Taint, J. Molloy, P. Royce, and S. Mooremeier watch the ball closely.

DECK tennis is a fast, but not too strenuous individual sport. However, a considerable amount of skill is needed to play well. The object of the game is to keep the rubber ring going back and forth across the net using only one hand. Those who have acquired the skill are V. Hale, J. Theilmeyer, N. Brady, J. Theilmeyer, D. Bonomini, V. Cummins, J. Hennel, J. Molloy kneeling M. Schroeder, P. Royce.

ANOTHER of the individual sports, Shuffleboard, provides training for accuracy as well as muscle co-ordination for those girls who play the game. The fact that a sore arm and aching leg muscles are results of a shuffleboard game doesn't bother V. Cummins, J. Taint, P. Royce, J. Hennel, D. Bonimini, V. Hale and M. Schroeder, who are about to begin a game.

EARLY before school and after school, J. Molloy, D. Bonomini, J. Thielmeyer, V. Hale, N. Brady standing; J. Taint, M. Schroeder, J. Thielmeyer and V. Cummins kneeling, may be seen in or on their way to the gym to play off their badminton games. Even though this game resembles both tennis and ping ping it strikes a happy medium between the two games and attracts many athletes in its own right.

HORSESHOES has always been one of the favorite outdoor summer sports. G.A.A. girls play indoors in the springtime, with rubber horseshoes, of course. Even with these modifications the game still is exciting. In the picture P. Royce, J. Hennel, D. Bonomini, V. Cummins and J. Taint anxiously watch J. Molloy measure the distances of two horseshoes from the peg to decide who earns the point.

YES, EVEN tennis is played in the gym, beginners' tennis. The tournament begins after a few instructions about scoring and strokes. Often more time is spent crawling under apparatus searching for balls than playing. M. Miller, L. Madgett, V. Hale kneeling, R. Brenner, E. Bauer, and M. Muth seated, prefer outdoor courts.

Let ball. Serve over! Side out. Rotate! These are familiar terms to Volleyball enthusiasts. Two games going at once make the sport doubly exciting. Competition is keen between class teams.

BOWLING:

Basketball Teams Compete For Title

BASKETBALL is a game of high organization requiring both teamwork and co-ordination of mind and body. The seniors carried off the glory as the winning team. To keep up the established tradition the Honor Team once again matched their ability to that of the Varsity Team. It is needless to say that the boys, won, but defeat is always forgotten in fun.

The girls who sold programs at the football games worked hard to help make a success of this new G.A.A. project. A mimeograph was bought with proceeds.

STANDING: M. Schroeder, J. Hennel, J. Thielmeyer, S. Moormeier, D. Bonomini, E. Balastra. KNEELING: V. Cummins, J. Blettner, V. Hale, B. Mori, P. Royce.

BASEBALL:
SECOND ROW: J. Thielmeyer, D. Hume, D. Bonomini, S. Moormeier, J. Thielmeyer. FIRST ROW:
J. Theiler, V. Cummins, V. Hale, J. Blettner.

BASEBALL, another popular G.A.A. sport, starts sometime in April. Equipped with balls, gloves, and bats, the girls again trudge down to Coy Field. When it rains, they play in the gym with a few rules added by Miss Balastra, the sponsor. The season never passes without someone receiving a bumped head or bruised shins.

Mermaids Play And Swim After Hours

SWIMMING:
STANDING: J. Molloy, D. Blesch, V. Hale, A. Pearson, B. Binder, J. Reisner, V. McClure, J. Theiler, J. Parks, A. Zuber. SEATED: N. Brady, J. Thielmeyer, M. Schroeder, S. Moormeier, R. Neubacher, D. Estes, J. Biederman, L. Bailey, M. Keefer.

Every Friday the mermaids, under the sponsorship of Miss Jeannette Nurre, invade the boys' pool. Swimming is for a needed letter.

Comes 1977

and we know you'll agree that the good old Annual Staff WAS right. Yes, sir, those were "The Best Days of Our Lives," after all.

THE PLANE is at the repair hangar and the Cincy weather, not having changed much in spite of thirty years of exposure to the Atomic Age, you decide the smartest thing to do is just to spend the evening remembering school days at Hughes High.

You dust off the old 1947 Annual, hidden behind the best sellers for lo these many moons. Why, those corny kids! You were sure, way back when . . . you had hair . . . that they were wrong and the future was best; but they win after all, those were the days.

"Lots of luck to the most beautiful cousin a boy can have."
